

Brock Hanf, Loan Officer, Easton Branch

Exchange Bank & Trust
216 W. Riley St.
Easton, Kansas 66020

Exchange Bank welcomes back Brock Hanf to our bank family.

Brock first worked for Exchange Bank as a part-time teller during the summer months while attending Kansas State University where he received his bachelor's degree in finance. His office will be located at the bank's branch in Easton, Kansas.

“Executive Vice President and head of the bank's lending department, Chuck Swinford, said, “We are happy to have Brock back with us at Exchange Bank, as a new loan officer. “He has an eagerness to learn, to help customers and to be involved in the community”.

President Mark Windsor said, “Brock did a great job for us in the customer service department and we know he'll do a great job as a new loan officer helping customers with their lending needs.”

Hanf enjoys outdoor sports such as hunting, fishing, boating, and KSU football and basketball games. He also enjoys working with his father, Bob Hanf, helping with the cattle operation on their family farm in Atchison.
