

Christopher Kuckelman, Compliance Officer and Legal Counsel, Exchange Bank, Lansing Branch

Before becoming Exchange Bank’s Compliance Officer and Legal Counsel, Atchison native, Chris Kuckelman essentially started with the bank as a young student in 2010, as a teller and an accounting intern while attending Maur Hill-Mount Academy. He continued through his college years at Benedictine College. Chris graduated in 2013 from Benedictine College with a Bachelor in Business Administration. He then attended Washburn University School of Law, graduating in 2016 with a Juris Doctorate. Chris passed the Kansas Bar Exam in 2016 and was employed as a Compliance and Legal Intern for Kansas Bankers Association while in law school.

After graduating from Washburn, Chris worked as a Compliance Consultant at Advisors Excel in Topeka, Kansas. Exchange Bank President, Mark Windsor stated, “It’s great to have Chris return to Exchange Bank. With his experience in banking and his in depth knowledge in compliance, he’ll be a tremendous asset.”

Chris is a new board member of the Leavenworth Public Schools Education Foundation, a member of Leavenworth County Bar Association and recently joined the Young Professionals of the Leavenworth-Lansing Chamber of Commerce.

Chris is happy to return to Exchange Bank in this new position. Chris stated, “I enjoy being able to help my bank family gain a better understanding of the laws and regulations affecting our customers, our institution and the industry.”
