

Tom Hall, Vice President and Loan Officer—Exchange Bank Easton Branch

“Performing in a capacity that enables me to help customers reach their goals, such as a home, auto or farm purchase, is at the top of the list of what I consider most satisfying about my role with Exchange Bank. I feel very fortunate to be in such a position and to have the opportunity to work with many outstanding colleagues in assisting our local and area neighbors with meaningful and practical solutions to their financial needs.”

As Vice President and Loan Officer at Exchange Bank’s Easton Branch in Leavenworth County, Tom is chiefly responsible for lending activities related to consumer and agricultural loans, as well as various commercial accounts. Tom has developed considerable familiarity with the Bank’s customers and other members of the area’s populace. Tom is a lifelong resident of Atchison County and a graduate of Benedictine College, where he received a bachelor’s degree in business administration in 1998. Active in a variety of community activities and fraternal organizations, he currently is a member of the Easton Lions Club and Abdallah Shrine.
